

Report of NSP Annual Convention-Karachi

NSP Church of Pakistan district Karachi has organized three days annual evangelist convention on February 6-8, 2011 at Christian Town, Korangi Road, Karachi. Our district Pastor Ayub M. Shohtra led the conference.

There was NSP Church Pastor Ayub M. Shohtra. He is known blessed person in the Karachi. There were more than 200 people including men, women and children.

The topic of the convention was “Persecution”. Pastor Alyas bhatti preached from the Bible about the persecution and stressed to keep on our faith while the problems and worries will be remained. We have to bear all of them and face them for the eternal life.

The quire of NSP Church praised the worship and sang the beautiful songs. People enjoyed the songs. There were also non-Christian who attended the convention and blessed from the word of God.

Please pray for NSP Church of Pakistan who is working across the country through establishing cell churches and inspiring the local pastors for the fulfillment of the Great Commission.
