

NSPC SHAMA WIDOW FOUNDATION

This organization is defined as National Service Programme of Charity specialized for deserved widows, ignored in the society of Pakistan.

Executive Board directors of the NSPC “ Shama widow foundation arranged a helpful programme for fifteen widows belonging to different sects of community in the presence of highly respected persons of the society of Pakistan. The majority of widows were Christians because of their Christmas festival. This program was arranged on Dec 15, 2010. It was all done on humanitarian basis. Most respected Allama Abdul Rehman Tahir holding an office of Central Vice Chairman of National Peace Committee for interfaith Harmony Govt of Pakistan was invited as a special guest along with respected Mr. Sajjad Ahmed Advocate of High Court and also holding an office of General Secretary of Lahore High Court Bar. All fifteen widows were given equally a bag of food material, each valued as Rs.2500/- or US$ 30/- per bag as well as 20 Shawls denoted by Mr. Shahbaz John from Sahiwal and respected Mr. Ayub Qaiser from Lahore. This function was taken as humanitarian Service. We are very much thankful for the above mentioned persons to help for this noble cause.

We have planned to help 50 widows in the month of March/April on the eve of inauguration of the said organization. We are very keen to make you know the value of charity in the service of humanity and hope to have some donation from you for this noble cause. NSPC Shama widow foundation team members are very happy to make distribution of the gifts to the widows from the sources of the community of Pakistan. This is initial and fundamental dream of the said organization to help our ignored and cruelty bearer widows of our own country from the sources of our own society in Pakistan. We very humbly make appeal to all donation giving persons to come and be part of this organization and work for the service of humanity as a duty and morality.

Yours faithfully
